Mission

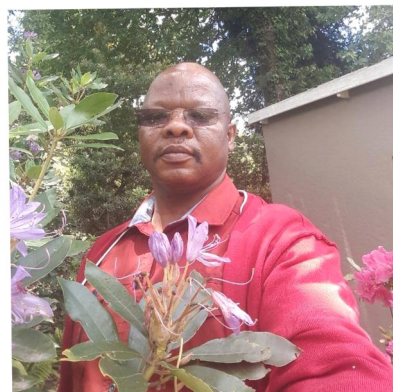

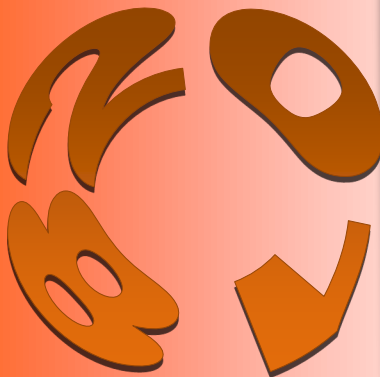

- To make room for all learners to develop their potential and acquire necessary skills which will make them marketable and thus contribute to the economy of their country, thus promoting patriotism.
- To promote communication which will enhance the learners' performance in every school activity; thus developing high self-esteem, confidence, sense of accountability and responsibility.
- To encourage team spirit that will help them to be sensitive to the aged and the vulnerable, including those affected by HIV and AIDS.

Vision

We have a vision of an institution in which all stakeholders that are involved in education come together to create an environment where peace and tranquillity prevails; and is also conducive to quality education, enabling learners to maximise their potential and realise their dreams with support from visionary, supportive and committed educators and community.

School Motto

"Impumelelo Isentabeni" meaning success is on the mountain and one has to climb to reach it ...

Acting principal 2018

Mr Z. Ntabeni.

Welcome to our new teachers

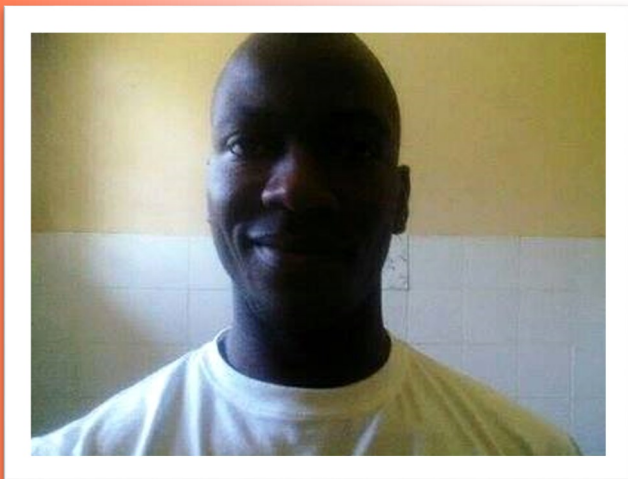

On behalf of our acting principal Mr Ntabeni, our SGB, faculty, learners and parents we would like to welcome our new teachers for 2018. Wishing you all the best.

LAB FACILITATOR THANDILE

Thandile Mzukwe has joined our faculty in February as our full time lab facilitator, Thandile joins our team after volunteering his time in one of our partner school labs at Xolani SSS.

Welcome to our team Thandile! Thandile is a dedicated rugby coach and will be helping our school with initiatives and Cami English and Maths in our computer lab.

Welcome 2018

We are the pillars

On the 22 February grade 12 learners of 2018 were given grade 12 ties. These special ties were handed over by their parents/grand parents. This special ceremony represents the grade 12 class of 2018. The grade 12 's are the leaders, the pillars of the school, the whole school with all parents wishes all grade 12's, all the best for 2018.
